ROUTE

Muziekgebouw aan 't IJ is approximately a 15-minute walk from the North exit of Amsterdam Central Station, a 5-minute drive from the A10 Oost ring road and a 3-minute tram ride (line 26) from Central Station. The Piet Hein car park, owned by the Municipality of Amsterdam, is located partly under the Muziekgebouw.

Muziekgebouw

On foot from Amsterdam CS

A 15 minute-walk from Amsterdam Central Station. Leave the station via the North exit (towards the IJ river). Once outside, turn right and follow the waterfront. At the traffic lights after 300 metres, go straight ahead and follow the main road uphill. You will see Muziekgebouw aan 't IJ on your left.

We advise people with disabilities not to use the steep footbridge, but to enter the Muziekgebouw via the main entrance at the bottom of the quay. You can reach the main entrance by following the road downhill 75 metres to the right of the bridge, around the small harbour and past the Mövenpick Hotel.

Public transport

Tram 26, stop Muziekgebouw / Bimhuis.

Bicycle

The bicycle parking facility underneath Muziekgebouw aan 't IJ is free of charge and open 24/7. You can reach the parking facility via a staircase with a bicycle slot to the right of the main entrance. From the bicycle parking facility, you can walk through to our entrance hall and ticket office.

Car

From the A10 Oost ring road, take exit S114 towards Centrum. From Haarlem, follow the S102.

Parking

Directly below the Muziekgebouw in the Piet Hein car park owned by the Municipality of Amsterdam. From the car park, you can take a shortcut to our entrance hall via lift or stairs.
